

Celebrations of Life

AT DURHAM CRICKET

In the tender moments of remembrance, Seat Unique Riverside stands with you, offering a serene space to honour the unique story of your loved one.

We understand the weight of these times and extend our heartfelt support that reflects the personal touches and essence of the life being celebrated. Nestled within the gentle curves of the River Wear, our function rooms overlook the tranquil expanse of a 4-acre cricket pitch and the embrace of the surrounding countryside, providing a reflective backdrop for your gathering.

Consider our suggested package as a canvas, ready to be painted with the memories and moments that mattered most to you and your loved one. We are here to gently guide you through this process, adapting every detail to resonate with the individual spirit of your family. Your thoughts, your memories, and your wishes are the guiding stars of this commemoration, and we are dedicated to honouring them with the utmost respect and sensitivity.

During this time of reflection and planning, please know that Seat Unique Riverside is here to provide comfort and flexibility. Whether you are just beginning to consider your options or have already chosen a date, our venue and compassionate staff are prepared to move at a pace to suit you. The space is reserved exclusively for your gathering, offering you the whole day to share, remember, and celebrate without concern for the hour.

The above pricing and package is based on a minimum of 60 guests. At Seat unique Riverside we can accommodate smaller numbers on request but these are priced on an individual basis.
